INTRODUCTION

With the war now upon us we turn to our gardens as a source of real comfort and a release from anxiety and worry. Shall we not divert our thoughts and stimulate our interest by trying out new plant material?

We have many new items to offer this season. We feel sincerely that all the plants listed here are worthy garden material if given good care and the proper soil and situation. With increased cost of production we are obliged in some cases to advance prices slightly. With a lack of supply we are in many instances obliged to discontinue some items, but we may still have a small amount of these on hand and so be able to supply you if you will write us your needs.

We find a real interest growing in the use of herbs and are happy to offer a limited collection of aromatic and culinary sorts. We have quite a few others not yet in suitable quantity for listing. The culinary herbs want more uses! There are many flavorsome thrills here for the adventurous cook.

Heights given in our descriptions are ultimate sizes. Plants sent are not usually mature specimens. We can furnish in many cases a variety of sizes at proportional prices. This is especially true in regard to dwarf evergreens of which we have both large and small specimens. Our evergreens are all grown from cuttings. We have found that this method of propagation insures the true dwarf characteristics. Plants grown from grafts are quicker but are apt to lose the dwarf form in time.

Read the terms of sale carefully! We can send you larger plants if you will pay the express charges.

With future supplies so uncertain we may not be able to issue a catalogue next season. Kindly retain this copy until you receive a new issue.

Whenever it is possible, we would like to have you visit our garden. We are situated on a paved road one-half block east of the four-lane Portland-Oregon City highway, No. 99E. If you are approaching Portland from the south, turn to your right at Hull Ave. crossing, which is about a mile north of Oregon City. If you are coming from Portland, turn to your left one block after you pass the interurban grade crossing at Jennings Lodge. If you become confused, ask anybody in the neighborhood. We have been here twenty-five years. We live at the garden, so there is almost sure to be someone to welcome you, no matter what time of day you chance to come.

If you live too far away to drop in on us, try visiting by letter. We are always glad to get letters, and are pleased to answer all questions to the best of our ability. We grow a great many choice plants in quantity too small to list in the catalog. If you are interested in any particular type of plant, write us about it. We may be able to supply your needs.

CHRISTMAS WREATHS

Our Christmas wreath business has been growing very rapidly the last few years, and we take great pride in the many repeat orders we have received. We have shipped orders to southern California, to the middle west, to the east and to Canada. So far as we know, all our wreaths have reached their destination in excellent condition.

We are especially fortunate in being situated in a part of the country in which many different types of evergreens grow to perfection. By combining sprays of so many different textures and color tones, we achieve harmonious and lovely wreaths which are interesting on account of the number and variety of the materials used, as well as being deliciously fragrant, and fairly breathing the spirit of Christmas. We do all of this work ourselves, and each wreath is an individual creation, differing slightly from all of the others.

We have developed two types of evergreen wreaths. The larger sort is made from rather long sprays of evergreen and ornamented with pods, berries, and big pine cones. We often add sprays of plain or variegated holly and berries, as this makes them more colorful. A wreath of this type, made on a ten inch frame will be about 24 inches wide when finished. They sell for $2.00 and $2.50. We will be glad to make more elaborate ones to order.

The smaller kind of evergreen wreath is more compactly made of shorter branches, smaller cones and juniper berries, so that it is not so large or wide when finished. These are very dainty wreaths, suitable either for doorways or for inside decoration. We sell a great many of the smaller sizes for use in apartments. We make them in three sizes.

18-inch wreath made on 10-inch frame, $2.00

15-inch wreath made on 8-inch frame, $1.50

10-inch wreath made on a 6-inch frame, $1.00

We also supply fine Oregon grown holly sprays, well berried, at 75c per pound, and nicely berried holly wreaths at $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00.

The price of wreaths and holly as quoted does not include transportation charges or the cost of the boxes in which the wreaths are shipped. The boxes for the large wreaths are 25c; for the smaller types, 15c.

If you are interested in Christmas greenery, drop us a postal card, and we will mail you a descriptive folder in November. Orders should be placed by the first of December, so that we can give them proper, unhurried attention.

HEATHER

The dwarf heathers, which are such good shrubs for the rockery, are listed under so many scientific names that it is difficult for the ordinary gardener to keep track of them all; therefore we have sought to simplify matters by listing them all under one heading. There are no finer rock garden shrubs than the heathers; their foliage is always neat, and the fact that the different sorts bloom at different seasons, makes it possible to have one or another of them in bloom at almost any time of year. All heathers require a loose, neat soil, and will be improved if they are cut back after flowering, as this tends to make them more compact. They need full sun to bloom well.

IRIS SECTION

Prices except where noted, 25c.

We have so many kinds of irises, that it seems easier and better to devote a section of our catalog entirely to them. Even then we do not feel that we have done them justice in our descriptions of them; they are so varied and so individual. This is especially true in the case of the iris species, which differ so greatly in size, habit and general requirements. We feel sure that if they were better known, the iris species would be much more extensively planted. If they are chosen with care, it is possible to have some species or variety of iris in bloom at almost every season of the year.

We are glad to have you visit us at any time, for we almost always have some sort of iris in bloom, and it is much more satisfactory to select your plants when you can see them in bloom. If you can't come to see us, we will be glad to give you additional information by letter.

JAPANESE IRISES

Japanese irises are very valuable because they bloom later than almost any other sort. The beautifully colored flowers are larger than those of other irises, and are well adapted for use as cut flowers. They grow well in sun, but will do well in half shade also. They like acid, and will thrive in a moist situation, but will grow well and bloom under ordinary garden conditions if given plenty of moisture before the blooming season. The number in parenthesis after the name indicates the number of petals.

SIBERIAN IRISES

Siberian irises are not nearly so well known as they deserve to be. This is largely due to the fact that the newer varieties are not well known. Until you have grown a few of the newer Siberian irises, you will have no idea how greatly they have been improved in size and color in recent years. They are graceful and lovely, and make excellent cut flowers, lending themselves well to flower arrangement. They will grow well in semi-shaded and boggy situations, although they are just as well suited to regular garden conditions. They prefer a slightly acid soil.
